

The Washington County Consortium

NEWSLETTER

September 26, 2018

Please join us for some exciting learning opportunities in October!

The Harvest of Ideas is on Tuesday, October 9, at the University of Maine at Machias. Coffee and donuts will be available in the Reynolds Center starting at 8:00 AM. ALL educators will be convening in the Gym at 8:30 AM for welcome addresses from some educational leaders in Washington County, and will break out to sessions from there. The registration link will be sent out on Wednesday, September 26. Please be sure to register.

There will be other learning opportunities for Washington County Educators in the month of October as well.

The Maine DOE will be sponsoring programming IN WASHINGTON COUNTY! Please check out their PD calendar (<https://www.maine.gov/doe/calendar/>) for more information and to register for any of the following events:

Guided Reading October 1, October 2, October 22, October 24

Growth Mindset October 16, October 17

You will also be receiving registration information from the Washington County Consortium for the following events:

ATOMIM Dine & Discuss: Visible Learning with Marielle Edgecomb

October 25

Instructional Design & Designing Motivating Learning Opportunities with Linda Laughlin

October 30